Christmas Stories

The words 'Bah Humbug' and 'Scrooge' immediately remind us of a famous Christmas story. They come from the Charles Dickens novel 'A Christmas Carol'. Many of us are aware of the story, but may have never actually read the book by Charles Dickens. We have probably seen the film versions or TV dramas based on the story. It is almost an annual event to have some new adaptation or a repeat of a favourite version. It has become a traditional part of the Christmas television. Sadly, I remember the Muppet version with most affection! It is interesting that the main character, Ebenezer Scrooge, has had his surname adopted into our English language and is associated with meanness and a lack of Christmas spirit. The book was written at the height of the Industrial Revolution, posing profound questions about the plight of the poor and the responsibilities of both society and the wealthy towards them.

There is a parallel idea, many people who have never read the story of Mary and Joseph in the bible. Yet they already know the story through nativity plays and television dramas. The context of the Nativity Story is also important; it takes place during the time of Roman occupation and the need for a census to ensure that the correct taxes are paid to the Romans. The Jewish nation is looking for freedom from occupation and oppression.

Returning to one of the central characters in Dickens' story, the lasting legacy of Ebenezer Scrooge appears to be the meanness he characterises. He is remembered for his poor qualities, including overworking his employees, their poor working conditions, low pay, hostility towards worthy causes, and the scorn of good times. We are given a glimpse that in his youth, his affections were scorned, and he became bitter and insular. The story was not meant to dwell on his shortcomings, but rather upon his transformation and redemption. Scrooge should be about turning a negative attitude into a transformed spirit of generosity. Yet the word 'scrooge' remains frozen in his past life and not in his liberated life.

I often feel the Christmas story is also locked in the past. People accept that Jesus was born and that he did some good deeds. But like Ebenezer Scrooge, the transformation in Jesus and his significance is largely lost and seems more like an idle tale. The Christmas story is about a human beginning, but it also has an ending on Good Friday when Jesus dies on a cross. If that were all there was to it, then it would just be ordinary. But Easter Day replaces death with new life and hope. It speaks of God's love for each one of us. What is really extraordinary is that God chose the humble birth of Jesus to change the world. So, is the point of Scrooge to warn us about meanness, or that we can be transformed? So, is the point of Christmas about a baby being born, or that God works to forgive and restore us?

CURIOUS WHAT CHRISTMAS IS REALLY ABOUT?

We all know the carols, the mince pies, and the frantic hunt for the last pack of sprouts... but have you ever actually read the story that started it all?

This Christmas, there are free Bibles for anyone in the village who'd like to explore the original story for themselves — no sermons, no strings, just a good read that's been around a while (a couple of millennia, give or take).

Pop me a note at :
christmas@whitestonehouse.co.uk
or message me on 07971 209995 with your contact details and I'll happily set one aside for you.

Sometimes the best way to find peace on earth is to read where it all began...

Happy Christmas!

KIND MESSAGE FROM OUR NEW NEIGHBOURS

" Hello Parishioners,
We are the new residents at Philip and Margaret's lovely house, Hillcrest up Heath Lane, - Beverley & David.

We would firstly like to say a HUGE thankyou to everyone for the incredibly warm and friendly welcome we have received since moving here a month ago. We are blown away by people going out of their way to make us feel welcomed. We look forward to meeting lots more locals as time goes by, we aim to be enthusiastic members of various groups and of the parish as a whole.

Just a few words of introduction - We have been living in New Zealand for the past many decades but do originally hail from England despite slightly kiwi intoned accents. David from the North East & Beverley from the South West, including Devon for many years. David is a retired plastic surgeon & Bev is a not-really-retired ecologist and regenerative farmer. Please do introduce yourselves, we'd love to meet you!"

Warm regards,
Bev & David Trowbridge.

The November meeting for members of Tedburn St Mary WI was held on Tuesday 4th at Tedburn St Mary Village Hall, with WI members and visitors in attendance.

Following the business section of the meeting, Tedburn St Mary WI enjoyed a fascinating presentation delivered by the speaker for the evening, Dawn Swancott, and her colleague Bobby from Tedburn Spinners and Knitters. Demonstrations and an informative talk on wool and spinning was delivered, and members were able to try their hand at the process. A huge thank you to Dawn and Bobby for sharing their knowledge and skills with us.

There was also the opportunity to take part in the monthly competitions, a raffle, and enjoy tea, coffee and biscuits.

Tedburn St Mary WI members will also participate in a visit to Bow Aquatic Garden Centre Garden Centre this month to share time together over lunch and have enjoyed an excellent Jane Austen talk and afternoon tea.

A Christmas chocolate making session and time spent together walking in our beautiful Devon environment are amongst the other activities recently on offer to members.

Future plans for Tedburn St Mary WI members include a Christmas Shopping trip to Bristol, the opportunity to participate in the Exeter Cathedral Carol Concert, and Christmas wreath making. Our regular meetings are held in Tedburn St Mary Village Hall on the first Tuesday of each month, at 7.30pm.

As always, we love to meet prospective new members, and you will be warmly welcomed if you would like to attend. There are lots of activities on offer at Tedburn St Mary WI every month, including good speakers, walks, and knitting and craft sessions. Remember that the first meeting attended is free, to enable you to decide whether to join our W.I.

Just contact President Jane: Tel: 07814659526
or Secretary Rachel: Tel: 01647 61868

I hope that you are all keeping well.

As I write, it is racing towards December. We are celebrating another successful inter-school run with over 200 children from local primary schools racing down the main drive and out on to the estate. I am sure you heard the cheers from the children. This is the 12th year of us hosting this brilliant event and it continues to bring such joy and a great experience for young runners. Huge thanks to the OCRA team for working so hard to plan and deliver this with us.

Castle Drogo is ready to open for a 70s Christmas and is looking fabulous. You can see the full opening dates on the website, but please do check on the day of your visit just in case of any extreme weather.

After the positive feedback from last year, the Castle will once again be open from Saturday 27th to Wednesday 31st December for some post-Christmas mooching. The Visitor Centre, Gardens and Castle then close from Thursday 1st January re-opening Saturday 14th February. The car park and estate walks will still be open throughout but don't forget that the toilets will be closed.

During the closure, we will be completing the annual deep clean and working our socks off to get ready for the 2026 season.

Best wishes all,

NEW INPOST LOCKER at the PARISH HALL

INPOST BOX AT THE PARISH HALL (Part 2)

To try it for myself to see if it works, I registered my address with Temu, placed an order for some goods and selected a parcel service as my delivery address. Temu then selected InPost as my nearest parcel delivery locker. Both Temu and InPost then sent me regular updates as the parcel was tracked at no extra cost. The final message informed me that my parcel was in the Whitestone locker. The message included a QR code. Simply tapping the screen to answer a few prompts and showing the QR code to the screen, opened the locker above my head. My parcel was inside. Success!

Sending Parcels in the UK

The good news for senders is that InPost lockers operate in a very similar way to other delivery options.

Customers just book their deliveries online, attach a label to their parcel, and take it to a nearby drop-off location. For customers that prefer next day delivery, there is an InPost locker option available for this.

You can use InPost to drop off parcels securely and safely in the InPost lockers any time of day, seven days a week. Your parcel is then picked up by InPost's courier service partner Royal Mail and delivered to your recipient's doorstep, within a 48Hr delivery window.

InPost locker sizes are varied to accommodate various parcel sizes and can hold parcels weighing up to 15kg (33 lbs) The in-locker compartment sizes range from Small (8cm x 38 cm x 64 cm), Medium (19cm x 38cm x 64cm) to Large (41cm x 38cm x 64cm).

And then you're done! InPost lockers are regularly emptied from Monday to Saturday, so your parcel will be collected from your locker on the next business day.

Fast Parcel Delivery Option

InPost understands that senders don't appreciate slow delivery times.

Choosing either a 48-hour delivery or a next day delivery is your choice and you can balance the importance of very quick delivery against extra cost.

If you are in a rush and need a parcel to be delivered quickly, all you need to do is drop it off at an InPost locker near you before 12pm, and it'll be delivered to your recipient the very next day, without any hassle.

How do I get an InPost QR code to send a parcel?

Your InPost QR code will be sent to your email once your order is complete. With that, you can open your chosen locker and secure your parcel inside for safe and reliable delivery. All you need to do is scan the QR code, place your parcel inside and let InPost handle the rest!

BOOK CLUB REVIEW NOVEMBER 2025

Death comes to Dartmoor by Stephanie Austin

This month we were grateful for a "lighter" read. This book is part of a mystery series set in the Ashburton area of Dartmoor.

Returning from holiday Juno Browne is settling back into her busy routine at her antique shop, dog walking and being a home help when the brutal killing of local journalist Sandy Thomas shocks the town and she is swept up into a fresh murder inquiry.

What was Sandy really investigating on the night she was killed? With a spate of dog kidnappings to contend with as well, the Devon countryside never felt less tranquil. Juno's amateur sleuthing skills are called upon once again.

We had fun discussing this book. The plot was very predictable, unrealistic and amusing in parts - a reminder of the Famous Five adventures. It had an abundance of characters with little depth but a strong sense of place as we know the villages and places in the book. Despite this, it was an enjoyable read for most of the group.

At our next meeting, we will review The Trouble with Goats and Sheep by Joanna Cannon.

THANK YOU FROM THE EDITOR

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you all a Happy Christmas and to thank you for your continued support.

A big thank you to all of our volunteers who deliver all over the parish each month. Due to illness and people moving away from the area we have had to recruit new volunteers this year to take over some of the deliveries. We really appreciate all of our volunteers whom we could not do without.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank Jock for completing yet another year of compiling the magazine and organising the printing and to Tom who collects the magazines from the printers and distributes them to each of our volunteers ready to be delivered to our readers.

We are at present compiling a reserve list of volunteers to help with deliveries to cover for times of illness or any other eventuality. If you think you could help, please let me know by emailing vbryant269@gmail.com
